Topic: Women Arise

SA Women's month celebration – 31 August 2023

Women Arise it's time to take your place in society

Esther – rise up and speak up for your people
Deborah – rise up and judge fairly without partiality and discrimination
Mary – continue you serving your most expensive perfumes, let the greedy complain, God sees your heart of extravagant serving
Martha – Serve without complaining – the King sits at your table "He's worth your meal
Abigail – Yes, continue to stand-up and serve the King even when your authorities mock the king – there is a reward for honoring God's nation
Hannah – press-on don't give up – the promise will come at the right time, Samuel's time of arrival was necessary for that generation, as you wait for your dream to conceive – it will happen, keep pressing on

Soaring through Life's Storms
God designed us to weather the storms of life and stay on top not below.
How does Esther remain on top when more Agagites pitch up later in life?
How does Hannah persevere when the waiting seems endless? And still stay at the best of her place of purpose?
How does Mary continue pouring perfume to those God directs her to serve while everybody mocks at her and looks lowly on her?

How…and do we need a maintenance plan as women to help us soar above the skies during poor conditions?

Question and Ansers
Reference to Episode 60 “I’ve got Peace – what captured my attention was Nelly’s testimony around the peace of God – there was so much chaos all around her, missed flight twice, paid 3 times to get over to Zimbabwe…peace led her to her place of purpose yet in the natural in looked impossible. Some might say “was it the will of God for her to go there, because the odd’s was against her” she herself asked God the question, but within her it made sense to go, naturally it said no, you shouldn’t be going? Is peace meant to be still outwardly in order for God to be leading us…?
Love, Love, Love…everybody focuses on the love tank…what do I need to fill my love tank….gimme gimme gimme my name is Jimmy? What’s love Got to do with it? Everything! The focus was away from how other’s can fill my love tank, but it was more about me working at it between God and me? Is this easy? Do people find learning to love God easy? How do we get this love triangle between God, us and others right?
We rise by lifting Others. A topic not everyone wants to respond to, yet largely spoken The race for success has become all about self “Me, myself and I” all women empowerment platforms are saying life and shift, make room for other women to succeed to? The bible teaches us to be humble which requires serving others, do unto others as you would want them to do to you. Give and it shall be given unto you. Sow and you shall reap. These are all biblical principles of lifting others because all these principles are others focused. What are some of the inner female challenges that restraints us from uplifting others. What drives their behavior, but it is a big reason why women sometimes do not support other women.” How can we get over this sub-concious poor competitive behavior and have the self-less nature of esteeming others more highly than ourselves?
