Topic: Coping with Single Parenthood - Part 1

Suicide is not the answer in addressing single parenting challenges!
You place your life at risk eternally, and jeopardise your children's destiny!

Suicide is "Self-Murder" - You cannot take your life in your own hands!

Exodus 20.13 You shall not murder.

Duet 5.17 "You shall not murder.

John 3.16 For God so loved the world that he gave his one and only Son, that whoever believes in him shall not perish but have eternal life.

When you are consider suicide you are actually rejecting the life Christ has given you, you are not accepting the unconditional love of God, therefore you see your life as worthless and insignificant.

John 10.10 The thief comes only to steal and kill and destroy; I have come that they may have life, and have it to the full.

Gal 2. 20 I have been crucified with Christ and I no longer live, but Christ lives in me. The life I now live in the body, I live by faith in the Son of God, who loved me and gave himself for me. 21I do not set aside the grace of God, for if righteousness could be gained through the law, Christ died for nothing!" e (nothing you can do can qualify you for righteousness, it is Christ righteousness that is free gift.) When you walk in His righteousness you were never have to live in condemnation or judgement or fear anymore because it is His Grace that enables you to walk in His ways.

Setting clear boundaries so that the kids don't lose household values

1. Coping with financial pressure;
2. Fighting loneliness and avoiding the trap of wrong relationships in order to fill a void;
3. "Self Care" - finding "me time" amidst care giving, and vocation;
4. "Family Time" -developing quality time activities with your children to build biblical foundation and parent child relationship.

Spiritual cleansing - Common oppression single parents face include: Rejection, abandonment and bitterness the devil uses void in relationships steal people's identity for the purposes of robbing them from fulfilling their destiny.

Addressing the Oppression of Rejection, Bitterness and Abandonment that places strain on single parents therefore causing them from living in bondage instead of freedom that Christ paid for them

Do we need to be delivered after loss of a spouse relationship?

Return of the unclean spirit [Matt 12.43“When the unclean spirit has gone out of a person, it passes through waterless places seeking rest, but finds none. 44 Then it says, ‘I will return to my house from which I came.’ And when it comes, it finds the house empty, swept, and put in order. 45 Then it goes and brings with it seven other spirits more evil than itself, and they enter and dwell there, and the last state of that person is worse than the first. So also will it be with this evil generation.]

https://www.curtlandry.com/battle-the-spirit-of-rejection/ “When our worst fears come true, we are vulnerable to believing lies from the enemy. These lies are meant to keep us feeling oppressed. Jesus came to set the captives free. Only through God’s Spirit can we be released from rejection’s spiritual stronghold. The spirit of rejection is an oppressive spirit that robs you of joy and peace. Oppression is defined as “mental pressure or distress.” Rejection that turns to spiritual oppression is a tactic by the enemy to push or press you down– through moods or emotions that block you from experiencing freedom and the presence of God’s love in your life. Does this mean that God’s love has left you? The Bible says that God’s love will never fail Psalm 136.1Give thanks to the Lord, for he is good.
His love endures forever.] Romans 8.38-39 For I am persuaded, that neither death, nor life, nor angels, nor principalities, nor powers, nor things present, nor things to come, 39 Nor height, nor depth, nor any other creature, shall be able to separate us from the love of God, which is in Christ Jesus our Lord.

Therefore, you must be able to discern what you feel from what is true. This comes from understanding the strategies the enemy uses in the spiritual realm.

Ephesians 3:17-19
"And I pray that you, being rooted and established in love, may have power, together with all the Lord’s holy people, to grasp how wide and long and high and deep is the love of Christ, and to know this love that surpasses knowledge—that you may be filled to the measure of all the fullness of God."
